

80th Birthday Party of Oren Lyons, Onondaga Faithkeeper, National Museum of the American Indian, New York, June 17, 2010. (Seated left to right) Ed Brownbear (Pawnee/Cheyenne), Brandon Tubby (Choctaw/Lakota), Kevin Tarrant (Hopi/Ho-Chunk), George Stonefish (Delaware [Lenape]/ Chippewa [Ottawa]), Lance Richmond (Mohawk). Standing left to right: Murielle Borst Tarrant (Kuna/Rappahannock), Henu Josephine Tarrant (Kuna/Rappahannock/Hopi/Ho-Chunk), and Larenia Felix (Diné). Photograph by NMAI staff

Today, I am a member of the SilverCloud Singers, a drum group that features singers from Native nations throughout the United States and Canada. The SilverCloud Singers are one of the most respected and sought-after drum groups on the East Coast and have appeared at numerous powwows throughout the United States.