

Flow of Trade Goods: 1614-1626

Illustrations by Maria Wolf Lopez, coordinated by Michael Sheyahshe (Caddo)

Top: Native people value shell beads called wampum. The Dutch traded goods, such as kettles, for wampum.

Middle: The Dutch traded wampum and European goods with the Mahican for beaver furs and food.

Bottom: The Mahican traded wampum with tribes farther north for beaver furs.