

Name _____

Student Materials

Supporting Question One: Why Was It Critical for the Navajo (Diné) to Return Home?

Homelands: Reflect—Where are the traditional homelands of the Navajo (Diné) located? Why are these homelands important to the Navajo (Diné)?

Part A—The Long Walk: Assess and Apply

Directions: After looking at the sources in Source Set A: The Long Walk, you may find it obvious that the United States Army disregarded basic rights of the Navajo (Diné). First, assess how the U.S. violated Navajo (Diné) human rights, and provide evidence in the column “U.S. Actions.” Then, apply your assessment by explaining how that action would be a violation of human rights.

	U.S. Actions	Human Rights Abuses Human rights are basic rights people have because they are part of the human community.
1
2

Part B—Navajo Resolve: Cite Evidence

Directions: Cite evidence from Source Set B: Bosque Redondo that demonstrates how the Navajo (Diné) exercised resolve by using resistance, persistence, resilience, and negotiation.

How Did They Do It?	Evidence
Resistance
Persistence
Resilience
Negotiation

