Article 5. The United States agree to allow one thousand dollars a year for ten years, for schools to be established for the benefit of said four bands at the discretion of the President.

Article 7. The United States agree to furnish each of said four tribes with a farmer for five years, and deliver to said farmers for the benefit of said nation, one thousand dollars value in oxen and other stock. But said stock is not to be delivered into the hands of the said Pawnees until the President thinks the same can be done with propriety and safety.

Article 8. The United States agree to erect, for each of said four bands, a horse mill for grinding corn.

Article 10. It is agreed and understood that the United States shall not be bound to fulfill the stipulation contained in the fifth, seventh, and eighth articles, until said tribes shall locate themselves in convenient agricultural districts and remain in these districts the whole year, so as to give protection to the teachers, the farmers, stock and mill.
