

Name _____

Student Materials

Supporting Question Three: What are the Rights and Responsibilities of Belonging to a Native Nation?

Part A—Rights and Responsibilities

Directions: Go back through your annotations and find the strongest examples of the rights and responsibilities that citizens and leaders of Native Nations exercise.

Case Study Title:
Rights	Responsibilities
Claim A: People of the _____ have the right to...	Claim D: People of the _____ have a responsibility to...
Source A:	Source D:
Claim B: People of the _____ have the right to...	Claim E: People of the _____ have a responsibility to...
Source B:	Source E:
Claim C: People of the _____ have the right to...	Claim F: People of the _____ have a responsibility to...
Source C:	Source F:

Name _____

Part B—Strengthening Sovereignty

Directions: Quote or paraphrase evidence from the sources you cited in Part A to craft claims about how the rights and responsibilities of belonging to a Native Nation contribute to and strengthen tribal sovereignty.

Rights	Responsibilities
Claim about rights The rights of belonging to a Native Nation contributes to and strengthens tribal sovereignty because:	Claim about responsibilities The responsibilities of belonging to a Native Nation contributes to and strengthens tribal sovereignty because:
What does the evidence that supports my claim say?	What does the evidence that supports my claim say?