

Northern Cheyenne tipi model, before 1923. Wyoming. NMAI 123161

A tipi, the traditional home, is central to traditional Northern Cheyenne life and culture. Parents and family members made small versions (toys) of tipis for young children to play with.