The Columbia River Intertribal Fish Commission (CRITFC) is made up of Yakama, Warm Springs, Umatilla, and Nez Perce tribes. CRITFC’s mission is “to ensure a unified voice in the overall management of the fishery resources, and as managers, to protect reserved treaty rights through the exercise of the inherent sovereign powers of the tribes.”

http://www.critfc.org/about-us/mission-vision/