LEVEL 1
- Welcome Center (visitor information)
- Potomac Atrium
- Elevators to Levels 2, 3, and 4
- Mitsitam Native Foods Cafe
- Espresso Bar
- Rasmuson Theater

LEVEL 2
- Return to a Native Place: Algonquian Peoples of the Chesapeake exhibition
- Roanoke Museum Store
- Sealaska Gallery
- Why We Serve: Native Americans in the United States Armed Forces

LEVEL 3
- Window on Collections exhibitions
- imagiNATIONS Activity Center
- Preston Singletary: Raven and the Box of Daylight exhibition
- All-Gender & Companion Care Restrooms

LEVEL 4
- Lelawi Theater (your visit begins here)
- Level 4 South Gallery
- Nation to Nation exhibition
- Window on Collections exhibitions
- Patrons Lounge
- Conference Center (Rooms 4018/4019)
- All-Gender & Companion Care Restrooms

---

THAT?ER & EXHIBITIONS

Don’t miss the short film Who We Are in the Lelawi Theater. Then visit two exhibition galleries, including the floor-to-ceiling Windows on Collections displays.

SPECIAL EXHIBITIONS & FAMILY ACTIVITIES

Find out why American Indian names and images are everywhere—visit the Americans exhibition. Learn more about contemporary Native art and culture in a series of rotating exhibitions, including the floor-to-ceiling Windows on Collections displays.

CHANGING EXHIBITIONS & MUSEUM STORE

Discover the Native communities of Washington, D.C., in Return to a Native Place. On view in the Sealaska Gallery, Why We Serve: Native Americans in the United States Armed Forces, shares the personal stories of Native Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Alaska Native veterans who have served in the armed forces of the United States. And visit the museum store for one-of-a-kind gifts and souvenirs.

---

POTOMAC ATRIUM, THEATERS, & CAFES

Catch a performance or film in the Rasmuson Theater. Feast at the Mitsitam Cafe. Enjoy a beverage at the espresso bar.

LEVEL 4

- Nation to Nation: Treaties Between the United States and American Indian Nations exhibition
- Conference Center
- Patrons Lounge
- Stairs
- Elevators
- Window on Collections exhibitions

---

MUSEUM FLOOR PLAN

Images and illustrations show the layout of the museum, with various galleries, exhibition spaces, and visitor amenities clearly marked.